Crl. Rev. No. 515/2001
(Old No. 869/1994)

Hon'ble Irshad Hussain, J.

None appear for the revisionists. At the time of the filing of the revision it was not admitted and therefore no stay order against the proceedings of the criminal case was then passed. The summoning order passed under section 204 of the Code of Criminal Procedure was challenged. The case relate to the year 1994 and since there was no stay of the criminal proceedings it is expected that the trial had been concluded logically and the revision has been rendered infructuous and the same is therefore dismissed. Consign.
